

Realistic Monthly Budgeting

My paycheck for working 30 hours a week is $154.50.

This means I make _____ every month.

Bills I have to pay:

Rent - $250.00

Utilities - $85.50

Food - $100.00

Telephone - $45.65

Transportation - $35.00

In order to pay my monthly bills listed above,
I need to save the following amounts each week:

Rent: _____

Telephone: _____

Utilities: _____

Transportation: _____

Food: _____

1. I try to save $25.00 a month for emergency reasons.
I need to put this much in my savings each week: _____
2. I have a balanced life so I include leisure / hobbies into my weekly activities.
I spend about $10.00 each week on this. How much do I spend a month?

3. The total amount of money I spend on the bills listed above each month is:

4. Is there any money leftover in my monthly budget? If so, what will I do with it?

5. What type of miscellaneous things could come up in the month that I might not have included in my budget? How will I handle them?
